

Give Our Regards to a Broad ... by George Barany and Ellen Ross

1	2	3	4	5		6	7	8	9		10	11	12		13	14	15	16
17						18					19				20
21						22					23				24
	25									26
				27					28				29			30	31	32
33	34	35		36				37				38	39			40
41				42							43				44	45
46						47				48				49
50				51	52					53				54				55	56
57				58		59	60	61									62
63				64										65		66
			67				68				69	70	71			72
73	74					75				76				77	78
79						80				81							82
83				84	85				86				87			88
				89				90	91				92				93	94
95	96	97										98							99
100						101					102					103
104						105					106					107

© January 1, 2014 (ideally) and June 8, 2014 (in reality)

ACROSS

1. Puts in play?
6. "Understood," hippie-style
10. U.A.R. member
13. Like bacon, to this puzzle's honoree
17. Gale of "My Little Margie"
18. Pimps
19. "____, verily!"
20. That certain something
21. George Abbott, Gower Champion, Mark Ryland, Tommy Tune, or this puzzle's honoree, among others
25. They get one's "bad cholesterol" back on the charts
26. Unlike the hairline of this puzzle's honoree's husband of nearly forty years
27. Like Nick Ross, nephew of this puzzle's honoree
28. Bridge proposal
29. Combining form for Spiderman?
33. He coached Rudy
36. Bill Kristol or Paul Wolfowitz, e.g.
38. A way to go, in N.Y.C.
40. "Elvis ____ left the building"
41. Disney/Albee mashup to be afraid of?
46. Socialite ____ Prentice Wilkin, a great-granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller
47. Playwright Will or producer Brian
48. Co. designation, across the pond

49. Co. designation, stateside
50. Shoe part for Sutton Foster
53. Saint 'hood? (also, college town for the brother of this puzzle's honoree)
57. 157.5° from W
58. This puzzle's honoree, a great niece of legendary Broadway producer Oscar Serlin
62. Turn left
63. Like New York Fashion Week
65. Woman with un esposo
67. High rollers?
68. Interactive networked narrative that is not a game: Abbr.
69. Garmin gizmo
72. Touched the tarmac at Midway, say
73. This puzzle's honoree's envy-inspiring current Broadway neighbors?
79. 911 respondent
80. Latin, my foot!
81. This is guaranteed to keep one out of eating at Beinlich's
82. Job for Poirot
83. Sushi condiment
86. Goal
87. Do some serious damage
89. Blogger's activity, often in the wee hours
92. Leading men in the Bernstein/Comden/Green musical "On the Town"

95. This puzzle's honoree and her three sons
100. Michael C. ____ ("Dexter")
101. ____ Greenburg, author of "Love Kills" who was Nora Ephron's first husband
102. One seeing red?
103. Buster's neckwear
104. Eric ____, who wrote the lyrics and book for 71-Down
105. "Evil Woman" grp. (played at every LSCC Labor Day picnic)
106. Theatergoer's quest
107. Dmitri's denials

DOWN

1. Winter hrs. in 95-Down 97-Down
2. Jocks: Abbr.
3. Do a laundry chore, e.g.
4. Halloween alternative
5. Bohemian composer of "The Bartered Bride" and "The Moldau"
6. Smitten confession
7. River barriers
8. Diamonds, slangily
9. A modicum of modesty for Gypsy Rose Lee
10. Harmony, so to speak
11. Megan Draper's sexy number, "Zou bisou bisou," e.g. (Ooh la la!)
12. Numbers to crunch
13. Some porn, briefly
14. How long a play plays

15. Middle of the palindrome about Napoleon's exile
16. Remote
22. Laid, in a way
23. "The Professor and the Madman" subj.
24. Suffix for court or front
28. Manhattan or The Bronx, for short
30. Windy City Sweets craver, perhaps
31. Shakespearean or theatrical Prince
32. Gov. org. that funds much non-medical academic research
33. Lets up
34. Five-carbon sugar (part of ATP)
35. Compacts and accords
37. Reds or Bengals, on scoreboards
38. How some hearts are broken
39. Get ____ (toss)
42. Banks's club
43. He played a boy Soprano
44. ____ Coyote
45. The loneliest number
51. Accumulate, as a fortune
52. Put down in writing?
53. Void, in Vichy
54. Harold Baines and Dayan Viedo, e.g.: Abbr.
55. Tokyo's airport
56. Mower's trails
59. Cleavage specialist?
60. Mongolian tents
61. Titicaca, por ejemplo
64. Tahiti, par exemple

66. Turndown from Li'l Abner
69. Math subj. with angles
70. Chest muscle
71. Musical that parodied Arthurian legend
73. Minyan member
74. Old country granny
75. Show piece?
76. They danced around the Round Table, in 71-Down
77. Marshall Plan offering, briefly
78. "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" host who is undoubtedly a millionaire
84. Label for John, Paul, George, and Ringo
85. Derek, Diddley, and Jackson
86. It may be fare to an aardvark
88. Like some old bread or cheese
90. Brand of non-stick cookware (anagram of FLAT)
91. Kelly Clarkson's "____ One Will Listen"
92. Short-billed rail
93. Old-school method
94. Ella Fitzgerald specialty
95. Town for this puzzle's honoree, for short
96. Took to the cleaners
97. State for this puzzle's honoree, for short
98. Abbr. in a help wanted ad
99. Metric wts.