Greetings, salutations and odes of great joy!

Our humblest gratitude be extended to thee, O most worthy parents and friends of "Shakespeare in the Parkview". Lady Deb and I will be forever indebted to thee for thy time and generosity. Only with thy most noble spirits could we have pulled 'offeth' this festivity. I thanketh thee—to quoteth Shakespeare—"from our bowels" for the five years of the festivity of footlights and bid thee, good friends, Adieu.

Lady Hillebi

What you need to know:

- Duke Frederick has usurped the kingdom from Duke Senior and banished him to the Forest of Arden.
- Duke Frederick's daughter, Celia, is the best friend of Duke Senior's daughter, Rosalind.
- Oliver, the eldest son of Sir Rowland de Boys (who we never meet, but is a good friend of Duke Senior) has sided with Duke Frederick, whilst his younger brother, Orlando, is loyal to Duke Senior. That being said, Oliver has mistreated Orlando.
